

Declaration

This document describes the features related to the brokerage services offered to European residents (EU/EEA) by MyBro (hereinafter the "Company"), incorporated in St. Vincent and the Grenadines with company number 135 LLC 2019 and whose registered office is at Euro House, Richmond Hill Road, P.O. Box 2897, Kingstown, St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

European residents in accordance with the MiFID II (Directive 2014/65/EU) are able to receive investment services by a third-country firm at their own exclusive initiative. If you would like to proceed with opening an account, you should study the features of the Company and the limitations related to trading through a third-country firm. The main limitations of the work with a third-country firm:

- You are not covered by the ICF (Investor Compensation Fund).
- You are not able to communicate with your local authorities for claims against the Company, however you should send your requests to the Company, at first, and to the regulator of the Company, if necessary.
- You are not covered by EU/EEA regulatory protection and cannot claim to EU/EEA regulators in case of any disputes between the Company and the client.

Prior to opening an account, you should declare the following:

While opening the account with the Company, I declare that the provision of an investment service and/or the performance of investment activity by the Company was initiated by my own exclusive initiative.

I understand that my activities with the Company are out of scope of European legal framework and protection, and I understand the risks it entails.

I accept to receive all regulatory disclosures only in the English language.